

WASHINGTON, DC

The city that symbolizes the ideas of our nation's founders is the city that keeps those ideas alive as it has since our government's inception in 1800. Everyday, people in Washington alter mankind's fate upon this earth. Some days they change it greatly; some days only a little. What happens in Washington effects everybody on Earth. Shouldn't you know more than a little about it? Visit Washington to learn how our great nation is run.

WASHINGTON DC, BALTIMORE & ANNAPOLIS Three Harbors

"Washington on the Waterfront" is often overshadowed by the "Washington the Capital City". Here you will enjoy discovering the many diversions of the Potomac, from sightseeing cruises to seafood markets and restaurants.

From the Inner Harbor shops, restaurants and produce markets to the National Aquarium to the new Oriole Park at Camden Yards, Baltimore is vibrantly alive with the excitement of her own spirit of renaissance.

Turn back the clocks and stroll the cobblestone streets and picturesque wharfs of Annapolis, home to the U.S. Naval Academy. Situated on Chesapeake Bay, Annapolis offers some of the best boating and seafood on the east coast.
